No. 02-CV-00878-TLN-AC

ORDER AUTHORIZING PETITIONER
TO SEEK A TRANSFER OF THE
STRUCTURED SETTLEMENT PAYMENT
RIGHTS BY AND BETWEEN AMANDA J.
AND J.G. WENTWORTH
ORIGINATIONS, LLC, PURSUANT TO
CALIFORNIA INSURANCE CODE § 10134
ET SEQ. BEFORE THE PLACER
COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

Before the Court is Petitioner J.G. Wentworth Originations, LLC’s (“Petitioner”) Motion for an order authorizing Petitioner to seek a transfer of the structured settlement payment rights by and between Plaintiff Amanda J. (“Plaintiff”) and Petitioner before the Placer County Superior Court. (ECF No. 92.) For the reasons set forth below, the Court hereby GRANTS Petitioner’s motion and authorizes Petitioner to proceed before the Placer County Superior Court.

On July 22, 2005, the Honorable David F. Levi of this Court approved the petition of Sophia Campos-Riedel, court appointed Guardian Ad Litem for minor Plaintiffs Amanda J. and Samantha W., for Approval of Minor’s Compromise, pursuant to a settlement reached between the minor Plaintiffs and Defendant Butte County. (ECF No. 78.) The approved Minor’s Compromise in relevant part, stated as follows:

1 2. Payable to Amanda J[.] (also “Payee”):

2 A. $2,000.00 payable annually for four (4) years certain only,
3 beginning 10/02/2014. Last payment is due 10/02/2017.

4 B. Lump sum payment of $71,960.00 payable on 10/02/2021.

5 The precise future periodic payment amounts may vary slightly
6 when the future periodic payments are ultimately funded, due to 7 interest rate fluctuation and the time sensitivity of the investment.

8 It is understood that Payor will make a Non-Qualified Assignment
9 to NABCO Assignments, Ltd. (“Assignee”) of these future periodic
10 payment obligations, with a present value of $54,599.95 ($15,000
11 allocated to Samantha, and $39,599.95 allocated to Amanda). The 12 Assignee shall fund the obligation for the periodic payments by the 13 purchase of an annuity contract from Allstate Life Insurance
14 Company. The Assignee shall be substituted as obligor of such 15 payments for Payor, which shall be released from any further
16 obligation to make said future periodic payments. It is understood
17 that the Assignee shall be the sole owner of the annuity contract.
18 None of the periodic payments (including the Claimant’s or Payee’s 19 rights to such payments), or any portion thereof, may be 20 accelerated, deferred, increased or decreased, anticipated, sold,
21 assigned, pledged or encumbered by the Payee (or by any other
22 person who becomes a recipient of periodic payments pursuant to 23 the terms of the Non-Qualified Assignment Agreement or by 24 operation of law), except as pursuant to a qualified order under IRC
25 Section 5891, and as amended.

26 (ECF No. 78 at 2–3.)

27 Plaintiff Amanda J. now seeks to sell her structured settlement payment rights emanating
28 from the Order of this Court to Petitioner, despite the anti-assignment language in the approved
29 Minor’s Compromise and the corresponding approval Order. (ECF No. 92 at 2.) Petitioner
30 argues that “California courts have found that such language is unenforceable to bar the transfers
31 of structured settlements.” (ECF No. 95-1 at 2, citing 321 Henderson Receivables, LLC v.
32 Sioteco, 173 Cal. App. 4th 1059, 1074 (2011).) Indeed, California Insurance Code Section 10134
33 et seq. governs the transfer of structured settlements in the state.

34 (a) A direct or indirect transfer of structured settlement payment
35 rights is not effective and a structured settlement obligor or annuity 36 issuer is not required to make any payment directly or indirectly to 37 any transferee of structured settlement payment rights unless the 38 transfer has been approved in advance in a final court order based 39 on express written findings by the court that:

40 (1) The transfer is in the best interest of the payee, taking into 41 account the welfare and support of the payee’s dependents.

1 ...

2 (4) The transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or the
3 order of any court or other government authority.

4 (f)(1) A petition under this article for approval of a transfer of
5 structured settlement payment rights shall be made by the transferee
6 and brought in the county in which the payee resides at the time the 7 transfer agreement is signed by the payee, or, if the payee is not
8 domiciled in California, in the county in which the payee resides or 9 in the county where the structured settlement obligor or annuity
10 issuer is domiciled.

11 California Insurance Code Section 10139.5. Therefore, according to the California statute
12 governing Plaintiff's structured settlement, she needs approval of the court in the county in which 13 she resides in order to make a transfer effective. Id.

14 The annuity issuer/structured settlement obligor for Plaintiff's structured settlement is 15 Allstate Life Insurance Company ("Allstate"). (ECF No. 92 at 2.) According to Petitioner,
16 Allstate "has requested that prior to the Petition being heard in the County of Placer (the county
17 of residence for [Plaintiff Amanda J.]), that the United States District Court for the Eastern 18 District of California [] issue an order permitting the Petition to be heard in Placer County...."
19 (ECF No. 92 at 3.) Petitioner does not articulate the reason(s) Allstate has requested such an
20 order. Presumably, since this Court issued the Order approving the structured settlement, Allstate
21 has concerns that this Court could issue an order in the future finding that the transfer contravenes
22 the Order of this Court. While this Court certainly has no authority to demand that the Placer
23 County Superior Court hear this action, the Court does not take issue with Petitioner and Plaintiff
24 bringing their request for transfer of structured settlement payment rights before the Placer
25 County Superior Court as required by California Insurance Code Section 10139.5 (f)(1). The 26 Court notes that this Order does not: approve the proposed transfer; find that the transfer does not
27 contravene any applicable statute or the order of any court or other government authority; nor 28 does the Court find that it is in the best interests of the Plaintiff. Rather, the Court simply finds no reason why a judge of the Placer County Superior Court cannot make those determinations. If the Placer County Superior Court determines that the anti-assignment language approved by this Court is unenforceable and that the transfer is permissible under California law, the Court

1 confirms that the transfer does not contravene any order of this Court.

2 Therefore the Court GRANTS Petitioner's request and will permit the Petitioner to
3 proceed in Placer County Superior Court regarding the sale of Plaintiff Amanda J.'s structured
4 settlement payment rights emanating from the Order of this Court Approving of the Minor's
5 Compromise.
